

MENU OF Adventures

- Animals
- Baking
- Building
- Celebrations
- Families
- Flowers
- Forts
- Fruit & Chocolate
- Gardening
- Nature
- Picnic
- Recycled Art
- Service
- Sky (Night & Day)
- Stories
- Water (Ingathering)
- Or Create Your Own!

ADVENTURE JOURNAL

Adventure can happen anywhere! Keep track or yours this summer and earn badge stickers along the way! Use these adventure starters or create your own adventure that matches the theme. Your only limit is your imagination

Bring your journal to the Fruit & Chocolate communion on September 17th and we'll celebrate together.

ANIMALS

Join us for the multigenerational blessing of the animals worship on August 27th

Furred, feathered, finned, or scaled, animals are a part of the world we live in. You may have a special animal you love and care for, a species you are especially interested in, or maybe you aren't too sure about them and would like to learn more. Use this Summer Adventure to dive in to the animal world!

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Animals are undoubtably a part of the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part and as such we respect them.

- Learn about UUMA; the Unitarian Universalist Animal Ministry,
- Spend some time with an animal,
- Observe one in your home, in nature, at a zoo or aquarium, Watch a video and learn to draw your favorite animal,
- Look up 3 new facts about animals and share them with someone

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Browse this Youtube channel and choose an animal to learn how to draw

BAKING

Make some baked goods to share

Fresh from the oven and made with love! Baked treats smell heavenly, taste delicious, and feed the body and soul. Bread making is a skill that dates back 10,000 years and is still being perfected today, while the art form of pastry invites a whole different set of skills. Let this Summer Adventure take you to the kitchen and encourage you to learn something new.

Connecting to our UU Faith: Tuesday August 1st is Lammas Day this year. It is the pagan holiday halfway between Summer solstice and the fall equinox. It is a harvest festival where we begin to be able to gather what we have planted.

- Watch a kids baking show,
- Research recipes for your favorite baked goods,
- Try making homemade bread,
- Learn about how ancient people baked grains
- Trace the path from grain to table of a baked food you enjoy.

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Watch this video to learn about how bread is made

BUILDING

Adventure at UUCP

Everyone builds a house or building of their own and we assemble a village together.

From skyscrapers to cottages building structures can be so much fun! Will you build something tall or small or in between? Gather your supplies of choice and start sketching a blue print!

Connecting to our UU Faith:

People come to Unitarian Universalism seeking meaningful connection. We need one another. We need ways to reach out and strengthen relationships, fostering more neighborly interactions and support systems. We need to build a village.

- Make a village,
- Create a model of your dream home,
- Build a fairy house,

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Try one of these building challenges from lego.com

CELEBRATIONS

Adventure at UUCP

Create a fireworks inspired craft.

Summertime holidays, Family reunions, Festivals, and Birthdays! There is much to celebrate this time of year. How do you celebrate? Are there special foods or activities you do? Do you go somewhere with friends or famly?

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Every Unitarian Universalist congregation has its own ways of celebrating life and marking life transitions. We share our joys and sorrows, supporting one another through difficulty and success.

- Take part in a celebration this summer,
- Invite a friend to join you in celebrating,
- Learn about how another person or culture celebrates,
- Watch a Parade,

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Follow this link to find out about celebrations in our community

FAMILIES

Design a Family Crest: Unleash creativity by designing a personalized family crest, using symbols and colors that represents each family member.

By choice or by birth our families are where we go for love, support, fun, learning, and more. In this adventure explore the unique dynamics of families, their importance, and the love that binds us together.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Unitarian Universalism affirms all families. Parents and caregivers find support to embrace their role as children's first religious educators—to open real talks with children about difficult topics—to grow in faith together through religious practices, truth seeking, justice work, service projects, and more.

- Learn about your family & make a family tree,
- Have a family game night,
- Read a book about a family that is different than yours

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Learn about different kinds of families from amaze.org

FLOWERS

Participate in the 100th Anniversary of the Flower Communion! A tradition in this congregation that takes place at the end of the church year.

Beautiful blooms in all the colors of the rainbow delight us from spring through fall. Take some time to notice their shape, smell their scent, and appreciate their beauty.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

The Flower Ceremony or Flower Communion, is an annual ritual that celebrates beauty, human uniqueness, diversity, and community. Created in 1923 by Unitarian minister Norbert Čapek of Prague, Czechoslovakia, the Flower Ceremony was introduced to the US by Rev. Mája Čapek,

- Plant flowers at home and care for them this summer,
- Collect some blooms and create a pressed flower design,
- Draw a bouquet of your favorite flowers

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Disect a flower and discover what is inside

Build a fort!

Who doesn't need a special place all their own? With Blankets in the living room, pillows under the table, hidden by the leaves of a favorite tree, or in the biggest cardboard box you can find, a fort is a magical place.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Our faith recognizes the direct experience of wonder and the renewal of our spirit as a source that we draw from. Creating a cozy safe place is a perfect way to foster some of those feelings.

- Research different kinds of forts,
- Draw a detailed design of a fort,
- Make a castle fort, Make a clubhouse, Make a fort for your pet

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Enjoy this story of a girl, a box, and what she imagines.

FRUIT & CHOCOLATE

Adventure at UUCP

Join us on September 17th for the Fruit & Chocolate Communion: a kick off to the Religious Education year!

A delicious symbol of our UU faith that reminds us of what we all believe in and how we are when we gather together.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

At UUCP we represent our UU Principles or Values with different colors of the rainbow in some of our religious education programming. To kick off each year we affirm our commitment to those principles by making a rainbow colored fruit salad together and finishing it off with chocolate fluff to symbolize the covenant we make to one another.

- Make your own fruit & chocolate salad,
- Learn about our UU faith and what we believe in,
- Make a covenant with your family that describes how you agree to be with one another and how you will help each other when there are challenges

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Print and color in our rainbow principles

GARDENING

Adventure at UUCP

Plant and tend a garden at home or at church this summer!

Get ready to dig deep, sow seeds of knowledge, and witness the miraculous transformation that takes place in the garden. Digging in the dirt, planting seeds and waiting for your harvest provides hours of fun and a sense of satisfaction.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Our seventh principle teaches us to respect the earth and the interdependent web of which we are all a part. Tending a garden can help us connect to that web..

- Learn about three sisters planting,
- Plant a seed in a plastic bag and watch it grow,
- Learn about pollinators,
- Talk to a farmer at the farmers market about what they grow.

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Learn about pollinators and how they help a garden grow!

NATURE

Adventure at UUCP

Go on a Nature hike and take rubbings of what you find

The rich green woods, the bright blue sky, the way the sun plays on the top of the water, the beauty of nature inspires us all.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Love and Respect for nature are inherent in our UU faith. One place we see it is in our sixth source that lifts up earth centered religions which remind us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

- Play I spy, or what do you hear on a walk in nature,
- Visit the Great Grove at UUCP or another local trail nearby,
- Learn things about an animal that is native to Central Illinois

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Print these pages and play nature bingo on your next hike.

We finish up the church year with an all church picnic at the Herm farm!

Grab a blanket, pack a basket, and make friends with the little critters! Taking your lunch outside can turn an ordinary meal into an adventure.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

This is a beloved tradition of our congregation and you are invited to join in the food, fellowship & fun!

- Eat a meal outside,
- Set up a Teddy Bear Picnic for your stuffies,
- Grab an adult and learn a new recipe

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Play this picnic inspired logic game.

RECYCLED ART

Adventure at UUCP

Make a 3 D Sculpture with recycled items.

Embrace creativity and environmental consciousness by turning everyday materials into beautiful works of art that inspire others to reduce, reuse, and recycle. Let your recycle bin guide you!

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Our third Principle encourages us to strive for spiritual growth. For many people, expressing themselves creatively is a part of their spirituality.

- Turn toilet paper tubes into binoculars,
- Make beads from magazine paper,
- Upcycle an old T-Shirt into a shopping bag

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Play this online recycling game.

Provide service to your church community by volunteering at church!

Engage in acts of kindness and service to others, whether it's volunteering in the community, organizing a donation drive, or spreading positivity and love through small gestures.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Our second principle tells is that justice, equity, and compassion is important, volunteering and doing acts of service is one way to show that..

- Learn about different volunteer opportunities in our community,
- Ask you family to volunteer with you,
- Pick up trash the next time you are at a park or on a walk

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Hear from a young person why volunteering is important

Observe the clouds or stars and make a sky inspired craft.

The sky above us is full of wonder! Take a closer look and be inspired by what you find.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Or UU Sources tell us that science has a lot to teach us. Studying the sky and learning about what you see adds to your knowledge.

- Watch a documentary about the sky,
- Learn a story about a constellation,
- Discover what clouds are made of
- Study & record local weather patterns

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Hear from a young person why volunteering is important

Tell a progressive story.

Stories come in all different types and are told in all different ways. What kind of stories do you like? Adventure, detective, realistic, futuristic, historic, fantasy, mystery... How do you like experience them? In a book, or a movie, a podcast, a video game?

Connecting to our UU Faith:

Good stories are central to good worship. As a Time for All Ages, as part of a sermon, or as part of a multigenerational service, stories engage our hearts and minds and help us grow.

- Write a story and share it with someone,
- Make a comic strip to tell a story,
- Visit the library and read some new stories

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Try one of these story activities

WATER

Adventure at UUCP

Join us on Sunday, September 10th for our anual Ingathering service.

Splashing in a creek, dancing in the rain, diving into the the pool, or drinking an icy cool glass... Water and summer go hand in hand. Take a minute to think about all the ways you use water in a day.

Connecting to our UU Faith:

The Water Communion, also sometimes called Water Ceremony, was first used at a Unitarian Universalist (UU) worship service in the 1980s. Many UU congregations now hold a Water Communion once a year, often at the beginning of the new church year (September).

- Splash in water for fun
- Learn about animals that live in the water
- Hike to a creek and find out what lives therre

Draw or Write About Your Adventure:

More To Explore

Try one of these story activities

